

GRADE 12

ASSIGNMENT 1: All senior students must connect to their period's Google Classroom. Codes will be posted during the move-up day on 6/14. Using the information on the page, all students are required to create a Turnitin.com account and join their class.

ASSIGNMENT 2 (English 12):

All students enrolled in English 12 must read 3 articles related to career plans or post high school transition. Summarize these articles in paragraph form. Make sure to address what you gleaned from the article and how you can apply it to your life post high school. Your summary and reaction should be at least two paragraphs in length. Be sure to cite the article in MLA format. Due the first week of class.

ASSIGNMENT 2 (CP and Honors):

All English 4 CP/English Honors students are required to complete one of the essays on the Common Application (Create account on <http://www.commonapp.org/>) or from another college application, and post it on Turnitin by Sunday, August 25. This will serve as a first draft and a starting point for the college application process.

ASSIGNMENT 3 (CP and Honors):

All students enrolled in English 4 CP must read two of the required texts from the senior list below (2 books in total) while all students enrolled in English 4 Honors must read two of the required texts from the senior list below as well as Grendel by John Gardner (3 books in total). All English 4 students must write a 1 page informal reaction, incorporating specific details from the text, for each book (2 one-page informal reactions from CP, 3 one-page informal reactions from Honors) by August 25 and post it on Turnitin in a single document. This will count as a quiz grade for the first marking period and be used in developing a longer reaction essay. All assignments will be docked ten points for every day they are late.
